

Completely rank-nonincreasing linear maps

Don Hadwin, University of New Hampshire, USA

I will discuss completely rank-nonincreasing linear maps. I will show how they relate to old problems and how they have been applied to obtain results in operator algebras. I will also show how these functions lead to a new version of algebraic reflexivity. I will include a list of the main open problems in the subject.